A charming and very high quality small scale pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu, patinated bronze and Walnut statues signed F. Pautrot. Each statue is raised by three elegant ball feet below the circular Walnut base with a fine wrap around mottled ormolu band. The birds each stand on a dome shaped support with a wonderful ground like design where one of the birds is observing a unique and most decorative bee. Each of the ormolu birds displays intricately detailed plumage and superb attention to detail.
