A high quality true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st., Belle Époque period, ormolu three arm sconces, attributed to Henry Dasson. Each stunning monumental sconce is centered by a beautiful reeded back plate with a pierced scrolled foliate design. Leading out are magnificent richly chased winged cherubs draped in a wonderfully executed flowing fabric and holding up berried laurel branches. The three elegantly scrolled arms displays reeded candle cups with exceptional floral designs. Impressive presence and wonderful proportions.

Henry Dasson (1825-1896) was a renowned 19th century Parisian maker of gilt-bronze mounted furniture. Dasson specialized in the production of Louis XIV, XV and XVI styles, using the finest gilt-bronze mounts and was recognized as a brilliant bronzier. Dasson was made a Chevalier of the Légion d'honneur in 1883 and was awarded the Grand Prix Artistique at the 1889 Paris Exposition Universelle.
