An impressive and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Rouge Griotte marble and ormolu decorative wall plaques. Each wall decor is centered by a finely detailed ormolu plaque within a thick Rouge Griotte marble frame with a fine mottled border. One plaque depicts a richly chased scene of Diana the Huntress surrounded by beautiful maidens eating grapes in a beautiful scene of a clearing in the forest. The other plaque depicts a jovial scene of charming cherubs playing and flying in the clouds.
