A unique and most charming pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Biscuit de Sévres Porcelain and Ormolu statuettes. Each wonderful small scale statue is raised on a ground like base and stone wall backdrop in an elegant unglazed Biscuit finish. The statue to the left displays two Ormolu young boys climbing over and standing in front of the stone wall. The second statue to the right showcases a young woman sitting atop the wall while looking down on a pair of swans.
