An exquisite and most unusual pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Black Belgian marble, silvered bronze and ormolu vases. The pair are raised by a mottled Black Belgian marble socle decorated by an ormolu snail. Above is the elegant oblong circular silvered bronze vase decorated by a richly chased spiral grape branch while at the base of the vase is a grape cluster. Each urn is flanked by 'U' shaped ormolu handles. A mottled rim surrounds the ormolu interior. Fine quality and scale throughout.
