A superb pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Brèche Verte marble and ormolu urns. Each is raised on a square marble base with ormolu trim and ormolu laurel wreath above. The body is raised on a marble socle and is decorated by large ormolu laurel leaves. At each side are ormolu satyr masks and twisted rope handles, joined by a floral garland. Ormolu trim accents the neck and removable lid topped by a berried acorn finial. The interior also has an ormolu finish. All original gilt throughout.
