A striking and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Campan Rubané marble candelabras. Each three arm candelabra is raised by a square Campan Rubané marble base with fine concave sides and scrolled foliate ormolu feet. The mottled pedestal supports display richly chased wrap around berried laurel bands spiraled fluted designs and unique hoof feet. At the centers are the impressive and finely detailed eternal flame shape supports with beautifully curved arms adorned with swaging berried laurel garlands leading to lovely bobeches and foliate candle cups.

Candle Height: 12"
