An elegant and most decorative pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Celadon porcelain and Ormolu lamps, attributed to Limoges. Each stunning two light Pâte sur Pâte lamp is raised by an Ormolu foliate decorated mottled base and supported on four stepped block feet with rosette decorations. The beautifully shaped bodies display charming and most decorative Celadon Pâte sur Pâte central floral designs. Above are the Ormolu top caps with elegant foliate cabochon wrap around bands that introduce the mottled fut.
