A lovely pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Celadon porcelain and ormolu Pâte sur Pâte lamps. Each lamp is raised by elegant ormolu bases with concave corners and convex sides with fine fluted designs, attractive stars and richly chased wrap around berried laurel bands. The beautifully shaped bodies display charming and most decorative Celadon Pâte sur Pâte central floral designs with striking richly chased lion heads with rings in their mouths. Above are the ormolu top caps with elegant foliate cabochon wrap around bands.
