An exceptional and most elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and marble consoles. Each console is raised by topie shaped and scrolled feet below finely scrolled legs with carved decorative fillets and acanthus leaves. The legs are attached by a stretcher with a striking floral family crest in a satin and burnished finish. Above each leg are richly carved seashell reserves centering the striking foliate cabochon amidst a wonderful lattice pattern. Above is the original white Carrara marble top with a mottled border and rounded corners. All original gilt.
