A most elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Giltwood and white Carrara marble consoles. This wonderful pair of consoles are raised by elegant topie shaped feet with acanthus leaf accents and finely carved block rosette reserves, and a stretcher upon which rests a large scale urn. The circular tapered fluted legs each display beautiful acanthus leaves, fitted carved foliate chandelles at the flutes, and inverted acanthus leaf capitals. The demi-lune shaped apron showcases a string of beads below a row of chandelles, which is topped with an egg and dart band. Above are the white Carrara marble hand carved tops which follow the contours of the consoles, and are finished with a mottled edge.
