A stunning and most elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. Giltwood armchairs. Each beautiful chair is raised on four cabriole legs with foliate carvings. The front apron is designed with an arbalest shaped scrolling foliate central reserve with two smaller scale rosette carvings on either side.

The arms are decorated with carved acanthus leaves, a carved seashell on the hand rest, and upholstered armrests. Wonderful foliate carvings surround the back rest. The arbalest shaped top of the backrest displays an additional scrolling foliate designed central reserve.
