A high quality and decorative pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Gris St. Anne marble and Ormolu urns. Each beautiful urn is raised by a circular marble column with a square plinth an lattice patterned Ormolu band around the base. The marble shaft of the column is adorned with swaging Ormolu beaded garlands with acorn finials. Atop the column is the Ormolu urn which has a lattice designed socle base and a palmette patterned design around the base of the body. The center of the circular urn has a band of palmette figures and additional bands above and below with reeded designs. The flared top of the urn has additional lattice designs along the rim, while the inside of the urn has an attractive polished finish.
