An elegant and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and black Belgian marble Guéridon side tables. Each circular two tiered table is raised by three lovely slender tapered cabriole legs with handsome hoof feet, beautiful acanthus leaves, and a fine reeded band leading upwards to exquisite richly chased ram heads. Each leg is connected by a triangular stretcher with concave sides and a superb central rosette, and a central tier with its original fitted black Belgian marble surface framed within a fine mottled wrap around dentil designed band. Above is also the original black Belgian marble top framed within a fine wrap around mottled beaded band. All original gilt throughout.
