A most elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and black Belgian marble Guéridons. Each Guéridon side table is raised by handsome finely detailed hoof feet adorned with large acanthus leaves, joined by a triangular stretcher with concave sides and a fine central floral rosette. The elegantly curved legs display richly chased rams heads and are connected by central black Belgian marble tiers framed within mottled and beaded ormolu borders. Above are the original black Belgian marble tops fitted within mottled and beaded ormolu galleries. All original gilt throughout.
