A striking and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and marble candelabra lamps. Each three arm lamp is raised by an elegant square white Carrara marble base with fine ormolu ball feet and a fitted foliate ormolu plaque at the front. The socle shaped pedestal supports display lovely reeded spiral bands and additional foliate patterns. The elegantly shaped marble bodies encased with richly chased tied swaging floral garlands. The arms branch out from the top of the urns and display charming finely detailed leaves and blooming flowers.
