A sensational pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and onyx pedestal columns. Each pedestal is raised by a square base with a fine bottom ormolu band and a superb top foliate band. The square tapered central supports display striking richly chased pierced ormolu reserves with elegant foliate movements, charming musical instruments, seashells and beautiful tied ribbons. The square tops also display central pierced ormolu mounts with intricately detailed laurel leaves, superb cornucopias, quivers and eternal flames. Above are the fine foliate ormolu bands with richly chased palmettes and elegant stepped designs. All original gilt throughout.
