An impressive and richly detailed pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and patinated Bronze sconces. Each five arm sconce displays a wonderfully tapered cylindrical backplate with foliate scrolls and flowers all above inverted Fleur de Lys finial. Above are two elegant female busts flanking the mask of a Satyr. The five scrolled arms are spread over two levels and showcase richly chased acanthus leaves at the top and bottom leading to foliate candle cups and saucers. Above the backplate and in the center of the arms is an additional raised candle cup filled with fruits.
