A striking and most elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and porcelain vases signed by Sèvres. Each cache pot vase is raised by striking circular ormolu bases with exceptional richly chased acanthus leaf feet in a superb satin and burnished finish and a lovely tied wrap around berried laurel band at the border. The remarkable and most decorative deep cobalt blue Sèvres porcelain bodies display stunning hand painted gold tooled foliate designs centering wonderfully executed hand painted reserves of gentlemen picking flowers and courting ladies on one side and finely detailed colorful floral arrangements on the other side all framed within a unique gold tooled border. Impressive scrolled foliate handles lead up each side to lion heads amidst acanthus leaves holding tied garlands in their mouths while a beautiful pierced and beaded ormolu gallery wraps around the rim. Also finished on the inside.
