Marble Top Diameter: 22"
