A superb pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and red granite urns. Each urn is raised by an elegant square base with a fine mottled border and a wrap around palmette designed band. The mottled granite socle shaped pedestal supports are decorated with charming twisted ribbon and beaded ormolu bands. The lightly tapered granite bodies display beautiful wrap around berried laurel bands with charming tied ribbons at the center with striking richly chased Bacchanalian masks. Above the elegantly curved necks are the lids with beautiful flower bud finials and additional decorative wrap around foliate bands.
