A sensational pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Red Volcano onyx lamps. Each lamp is raised by a square onyx base with a mottled border, elegant concave corners, and a fine bottom ormolu fillet. The fluted ormolu socle pedestals are decorated with wrap around berried laurel bands below large acanthus leaves encasing the bodies. The elegantly shaped bodies display superb handles leading up each side to charming richly chased cherubs amidst lovely foliate designs and connected by intricately detailed swaging berried laurel branches in a rich satin and burnished finish. The lightly curved necks are decorated with fine ormolu bands and lovely foliate movements. All original gilt throughout.
