A stunning pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Sèvres porcelain vases. Each vase is raised by a square ormolu base with concave corners and a mottled design. The fluted socle pedestals display beautiful wrap around berried laurel bands all in a satin and burnished finish. The wonderfully executed Sèvres porcelain bodies display fabulous hand painted scenes of charming flowers with vivid colors framed within scrolled gold borders. Leading up each side are elegant ormolu handles with richly chased satyrs and elegant scrolls connecting the foliate and intricately pierced galleries. Also finished on the inside. All original gilt throughout.
