An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Vert Campan marble lamps. Each lamp is raised by a square base with fine ormolu ball feet below the socle shaped pedestal support with a charming finely detailed wrap around twisted ribbon band. The elegantly shaped body is encased by lovely foliate ormolu movements at the base and displays striking richly chased rams heads at each side connected by superb swaging floral garlands in a beautiful satin and burnished finish. Above is the pierced mottled ormolu top cap with a finely fluted wrap around design.
