A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Vert de Patricia marble vases, signed F. Barbedienne. Each vase is raised by a square

Vert de Patricia marble base with a fine bottom ormolu fillet and a lovely mottled border. Each vase displays a most elegant socle pedestal with a wrap around berried laurel band and acanthus leaves. The bodies display richly chased rams heads at each side and lovely elegant shapes. At the center are beautiful finely detailed musical instruments, gardening tools and charming floral and foliate patterns framed within a mottled border. Also finished on the inside.
