A very beautiful and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble candelabra lamps. Each two arm lamp is raised by a circular white Carrara marble base with a fine bottom ormolu fillet, a delicate wrap around fitted intertwining grapevine, a lovely beaded band, and a decorative fluted design. At the center are two charming finely detailed cherubs standing on a ground design base draped in richly chased foliate designs in a striking satin and burnished finish. They are holding up cornucopias leading to an abundance of remarkable grape clusters, fruit, and foliate designs overflowing at the candle cups. All original gilt throughout.
