A elegant and high quality pair of French turn of the century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and white Carrara marble Guéridon side tables. Each side table is raised on handsome richly detailed Ormolu hoof feet adorned with large acanthus leaves. The legs display stunning overlapping wave like patterns at the front and back with Greek Key designs on the sides. Each of the legs are joined by a charming lower tier with white Carrara marble fitted within and surrounded by a pierced gallery of heart shaped patterns. The legs lead up to handsome and richly chased ram's heads. Above is the wonderful white Carrara marble top also fitted within a pierced heart shaped gallery.
