An extremely elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble lamps. Each four arm lamp is raised by a circular white Carrara marble base with a fine bottom ormolu fillet, a lovely wrap around beaded band and elegant mottled fluted designs. Above are the sleek circular tapered quiver shaped central supports with richly chased foliate mounts. The elegantly scrolled arms branch out from charming tied ribbons and each display acanthus leaf designs, berried laurel bobeches and floral candle cups. Above are lovely urn shaped designs adorned with fine swaging laurel garlands and charming finely detailed flowers.
