An exceptional and most decorative pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, faux painted Porphyry, and Vert de Patricia marble lamps. Each lamp is raised by a wonderfully executed circular faux painted Porphyry base below the socle shaped pedestal support decorated with an elegant richly chased wrap around floral band. The beautiful uniquely shaped body is encased with striking acanthus leaves and adorned with striking rosettes. The elegantly curved neck displays a fine wrap around ormolu band below the superb richly chased foliate finial.
