A finely detailed and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu lamps. Each beautifully decorated lamp is raised on a triangular base with scrolling foliate designs and concave sides while being supported on elegantly scrolled acanthus leaf feet. Atop the triangular base are three open winged swans with paw feet which support the mottled center fut. Above the swans is a foliate decorated socle that holds the deeply fluted tapered shaft that contains scrolling foliate chandelles at the base. The top of the fluted shaft has a gentle acanthus leaf spray and additional mottled foliate designs.
