A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated bronze and granite urns. Each urn is raised by a square granite base with a foliate wrap around patinated bronze band. The circular fluted socle pedestal displays a most decorative etched design below the reeded patinated bronze vase. The vases display finely chased scenes of charming cherubs playing with a goat and eating grapes. Leading up each side are beautiful foliate designs and detailed rams heads. The top rim displays fine patterns while the urns are also finished on the inside. All original gilt throughout.
