A charming pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated bronze and white Carrara marble lidded brule parfum urns. Each brule parfum/pot pourri holder is raised by a circular white Carrara marble base with elegant ormolu topie shaped feet and a mottled border with a wrap around beaded band. The three curved central supports display handsome hoof feet below lovely palmettes encasing the patinated bronze body. Above is a delicate wrap around mottled and fluted ormolu band and the pierced removable lid with a reeded band, berried laurel designs, and a striking eternal flame finial above. The removable lid comes off to expose the finished interior.
