A striking and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, silvered bronze and Rouge Griotte marble lamps attributed to Barbedienne after a model by John Flaxman. Each lamp is raised by a fine Rouge Griotte marble base with a mottled border, ormolu ball feet and a fine twisted band. The socle pedestal displays a mottled design and tied berried laurel band below fine foliate designs in a striking satin and burnished finish. The silvered bronze body displays charming and extremely decorative scenes of richly chased cherubs playing below a fine ormolu berried laurel band with detailed rams heads at each side.
