An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu three arm candelabras. Each candelabra is raised by a circular base with beautiful foliate and a twisted wrap around designs. The three arms branch out from the impressive central support in the shape of a quiver with a striking ormolu flame finial. Each arm displays a most decorative fluted and foliate candle cup below scrolled movements and finely detailed acanthus leaves. Striking satin and burnished finish and all original gilt.
