A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu wall plaques.

Each beautiful plaque displays luxuriant and richly chased berried laurel garlands at the top and bottom, each tied with a most charming ribbons. A lovely coeur de rai foliate band extends along the border. At the center are finely detailed love birds gracefully passing a laurel branch to one another amidst richly chased floral garlands. One plaque displays a quiver and bow and an eternal flame on the other. All original gilt throughout.
