A decorative and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Patinated Bronze and Ormolu andirons. Each finely detailed andiron is raised on a square stepped base displaying fluted patterns and a beaded Ormolu bands while being supported on six topie shaped feet. The top section of each andiron showcases a scrolling berried foliate design with a patinated Bronze cherub and a torch of eternal flame containing fluted and reeded designs. Each most charming cherub above is seemingly leaning towards the flame with their hands out stretched, as if feeling the warm from the flame.
