An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated bronze and ormolu candelabra lamps. Each lamp is raised by an ormolu square base with reeded and beaded sides below the berried laurel band and reeded circular column. Above the columns stand playful patinated bronze cherubs holding ormolu cornucopias in each hand ending with with richly chased candle cups with floral designs and reeded saucers. One of the cherubs is standing above a pillow below a flowing garment while the other is standing besides a fallen urn at his feet and a tambourine behind him. All original gilt and patina throughout.
