A very attractive pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated three drawer chests. Each chest is raised by four square tapered legs with a fluted design that continues up the sides. The frieze is decorated with arch styled carvings, below three drawers. Each drawer is decorated with a protruding fluted center that is flanked by recessed panels, and an interlocking carved pattern on the top drawer. Above is the striking faux painted marble top. All original paint and hardware.
