A striking and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Rosso Antico marble and ormolu urns. Each urn is raised by a square Rosso Antico marble base with a fine wrap around mottled Coeur de Rai ormolu band below elegant berried laurel mounts and the remarkable fluted socle shaped pedestal in a stunning satin and burnished finish. The solid marble body displays an exceptional reeded design encased by beautiful pierced foliate ormolu mounts with scrolled handles at each side and a richly chased wrap around band of charming dancing maidens draped in wonderfully executed flowing garments. Above the rim displays a lovely beaded and wrap around cabochon band centering the finished interior.
