A magnificent pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Rouge Jaspé de Cazerdane marble and ormolu lidded urns. Each urn is raised by an elegant square base with concave corners and a fine bottom ormolu fillet. The socle shaped ormolu pedestal support displays a most decorative spiral fluted design and richly chased wrap around berried laurel band. Pierced foliate ormolu reserves encase the elegant baluster shaped body with striking finely detailed scrolled swan necks extending along each side holding richly chased swaging blooming flower garlands in their beaks and tied at the center. Above the pierced neck is the removable lid with fine foliate designs and elegant top acorn finial.
