A stunning pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Rouge Griotte marble and ormolu urns. Each urn is raised by a square base with elegant concave corners and a fine decorative bottom ormolu fillet. The lightly curved socle shaped pedestals display lovely wrap around foliate ormolu bands and top acanthus leaf bands encasing the bodies. The elegantly shaped bodies display superb fitted foliate chandelles below luxuriant foliate movements with detailed cornucopias centered by intricately detailed female masks in a striking satin and burnished finish. Richly chased scrolled foliate handles lead up each side centering the finely curved neck adorned with a draped ormolu wrap around band and fine acorn finial. All original gilt throughout.
