An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sèvres Porcelain and Ormolu Jardinière planters. This striking pair of square planters are raised by scrolled Ormolu pawed feet with large scale acanthus leaf designs. The stunning Sèvres porcelain sides are decorated by richly detailed and colorful hand painted scenes of cherubs and floral arrangements, while being surrounded by an intricately detailed Ormolu frame. Each Jardinière is fitted with an overlapping foliate designed Ormolu border, accented with richly chased Lion head finials at each corner. All original gilt throughout.
