An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sévres Porcelain and Ormolu lamps. Each stunning vases mounted into a lamp is raised by a circular Ormolu support with circular medallions held by a top bow with swaging berried laurel garlands. On each side of the medallions are rosettes all below an egg and dart design. Above are the baluster shaped cobalt blue Sévres Porcelain bodies with a central pierced reserve flanked by foliate decorated Ormolu handles. The neck of the lamps leads to a top Ormolu rim with a fluted design amidst circular and rectangular panels with central rosettes.
