A beautiful pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sèvres porcelain urns. Each campagna shaped vase is raised by a circular base with a lovely gilt accent bubble like design below the elegant fluted socle shaped pedestal support with wonderfully executed hand painted colorful blooming flowers. The body displays a fine reeded design with additional finely detailed floral and scrolled foliate patterns with striking richly chased scrolled ormolu handles with beautiful maidens. At the front of each vase are charming and finely detailed scenes, one of a gentleman and an elegant woman seated in a park reading a book with a gentleman playing the flute for them and the other scene of a beautiful maiden with her staff providing her shade with a young boy playing the tambourine. At the back of each vase are remarkable and vividly colored flowers all below a Les Oves and foliate designed wrap around ormolu band.
