A charming and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st.

Sienna marble and ormolu cassolettes. Each cassolette is raised by an elegant triangular Sienna marble base with concave sides, block rosette plaques, and fine topie shaped feet. Lightly curved supports lead upwards with lovely tied acanthus leaf designs connected by richly chased swaging floral garlands tied with charming ribbons encasing the Sienna marble bodies. Above wrap around beaded bands are most decorative mottled necks and removable lids with richly chased floral finials which lift off to reveal candle cups.
