An extremely high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu statues of winged cherubs. Each charming statue is raised by four ormolu ball feet below a faux painted Rouge Griotte oval base. The highly detailed charming young cherubs are sitting on a richly chased rocky and foliate base; one painting an elegant portrait with a scroll at his side while the other plays with a bow and arrow with a quiver and birds at his side. All original gilt throughout.
