An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Verde Antico Marble and Ormolu urns, in the manner of Maison Boudet. Each urn is raised by a square Verde Antico Marble base accented with Ormolu foliate bands and supporting a round socle trimmed with a foliate border. A pierced Ormolu foliate mount supports the body of the urn and displays stunning Rocaille and Rinceau scrolls. Flanking the urns are striking and intricately chased handles with palmette designs leading to berried acanthus and oak leaf reserves with beaded details. Above are the Verde Antico Marble lids with berried oak leaf rims and acorn finials.
