A very attractive pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble and ormolu cassolettes with all original gilt. The pair are raised by a thick square shaped marble base. Above is the handsome spiral fluted designed circular tapered ormolu support with a large finely chased laurel leaf shaped frieze. The ovoidal shaped cassolettes are flanked by impressive and elegant large ormolu scrolled handles. The neck is decorated by ormolu acorn leaves all below the fitted marble lid with an acorn finial.
