An extraordinary and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble and ormolu lamps. Each lamp is raised by a square white Carrara marble base with elegant ball feet, a fine ormolu fillet, and a beautiful wrap around mottled acanthus leaf band at the socle shaped pedestal support. The remarkably shaped white Carrara marble body is encased with richly chased pierced foliate ormolu designs at the base also leading up each side to striking intricately detailed masks of beautiful Bacchanalian maidens amidst lovely grapes and grape leaves tied with a ribbon. A lovely wrap around band extends around the center of the body with charming finely detailed cherubs playing all below the exquisite spiral fluted white Carrara marble upper body with a fine foliate ormolu band above in a superb satin and burnished finish. All original gilt throughout.
