An exquisite pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble, ormolu and Sèvres porcelain candelabra lamps. Each six arm lamp is raised by elegant topie shaped feet below a square white Carrara marble base decorated with exceptional finely detailed pierced fitted foliate ormolu plaques with lovely scrolled Rinceau shaped movements. Above a lovely beaded band and mottled border is the striking spiral fluted socle shaped pedestal support with a superb wrap around berried laurel band all in a superb satin and burnished finish. The beautiful cobalt blue Sèvres porcelain bodies are encased by remarkable richly chased swaging vines with intricately detailed vines leaves, grape clusters, and lovely foliate designs below the elegantly curved fluted necks from where the six arms are seemingly growing out of. Each of the branch like arms displays lovely finely detailed leaves and flower buds with stunning blooming flower candle cups. All original gilt throughout.
